

Biblical Garden Tour

The residence and Biblical Garden of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Baker will be open to the public for tours May 13th and 14th from 10:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m.

The Agape Garden, which features plants mentioned in the bible and many inspirational spaces, symbols, and messages from the Bible, has been the project of the Bakers over the last two years. Both of the Bakers are active Bible teachers in the Germantown Baptist Church.

To highlight the tour, Rick Pudwell, Director of Horticulture with Memphis Botanic Garden, will offer lectures both days. Pudwell also assisted the Museum with the 2001 exhibit of botanical paintings of Biblical plants held at the Memphis Botanical Garden.

Refreshments will be served, and tickets may be purchased at the Museum or Bank Tennessee in Collierville. Tickets in advance are $25.00 and $30.00 on the days of the tour. The event is sponsored in part by Bank Tennessee.
